

CURRICULUM VITAE for Stephanie A. Mann
Contact: Phone: 316-685-2838; Email: englishreform@cox.net

Published author, freelance writer and teacher: Available for presentations, interviews, readings and book-signings.

Publications

- Supremacy and Survival: How Catholics Endured the English Reformation*, New York City, New York: Scepter Publishers, 2009; Second Revised Printing, 2010
 - On-line publication: www.supremacyandsurvival.com (Website providing description of book, reviews, events, and links)
 - On-line publication: www.supremacyandsurvival.blogspot.com (Blog providing research updates and book reviews)
- “There’s Something about Bloody Mary,” First Things: On the Square on-line edition, November 16, 2009
- “In the Shadow of Tyburn Tree: Who Were the Martyrs of England and Wales?” The Catholic Answer Magazine, January/February 2010
- “Preparing the Church for converts: Newman, Benedict XVI, and the lessons of history” Homiletic & Pastoral Review August/September 2010
- “Henry VIII’s ‘Achievement’ What was the Dissolution of the Monasteries?,” The Catholic Answer Magazine, November/December 2011
- “Two Type of Saints: Martyrs and Confessors”, The Catholic Answer Magazine, July/August 2012

Radio Show

- “Supremacy and Survival on the Air”: Weekly one-hour live call-in radio series, August 4 through October 22, 2012 on Radio Maria US, part of the world-wide Radio Maria radio network.

Recommendations

- “We tap Stephanie often for her knowledge and expertise about the English Reformation and how it affected Catholics for our nationally syndicated morning radio show. She consistently provides us with engaging content about the high drama of this extremely complicated segment of history, particularly on the feast days of particular saints and blessed who gained such status through their martyrdom in the years following England's religious split from Rome. I highly recommend her work.”—Matt Swaim, Producer of the Son Rise Morning Show on the EWTN Global Radio Network
- “Stephanie is one of the most interesting Catholic writers on the scene today. She daily shares fascinating information about the English Reformation and the struggles of Catholics in the British Isles. She is awakening many Catholics to their own forgotten history. Her book SUPREMACY AND SURVIVAL is an excellent resource for teachers and students alike, giving one an excellent overview of times past and the principle players.”—Elena Maria Vidal, Author and Public Speaker
- “Stephanie Mann succeeds in describing the aftermath of the English Reformation in a way which is informative, convincing, and readable. Her account is surprisingly thorough for such a short book, and includes a whole range of political and cultural consequences of the English Catholic Revival – a truly amazing event which continues to this day.”—Father John Vidmar, OP, Associate Professor of History at Providence College

Media Appearances

- Ave Maria Radio Interview with Al Kresta on Kresta in the Afternoon, May 7, 2012 Discussing the historical background of “For Greater Glory”; the Mexican martyrs of the 20th Century
- Inside the Pages interview/pod-cast with Kris McGregor, March 12, 2012 on the Spirit Catholic Radio Network, Omaha and Lincoln, Nebraska
- Ave Maria Radio Interview with Al Kresta on Kresta in the Afternoon, November 15, 2011: Discussing “Henry VIII’s ‘Achievement’: What was the Dissolution of the Monasteries?” article
- The Good Fight interview/live call-in show with Barbara McGuigan, August 27, 2011: “St. Anne Line and St. Margaret Ward, Heroic Catholic English Martyrs”
- Ave Maria Radio Interview with Al Kresta on Kresta in the Afternoon, Thursday, August 4, 2011, broadcasting from the Catholic Marketing Network Trade Show in King of Prussia, Pennsylvania
- Ave Maria Radio Interview with Al Kresta on Kresta in the Afternoon, February 28, 2011
- Castling Nets interview/podcast on KAHS radio in El Dorado/Wichita, Kansas, February 23: Discussing the Ordinariate and evangelization in England
- The Good Fight interview/live call-in show with Barbara McGuigan and Richard “Doc” Geraghty, November 6, 2010: “Blessed Margaret Pole and St. Margaret Clitherow”
- The Good Fight interview/live call-in show with Barbara McGuigan, October 2, 2010 broadcast on EWTN Radio: “Blessed John Henry Newman and Supremacy and Survival”
- EWTN Bookmark interview with Doug Keck, Sunday, September 19, 2010 on EWTN Global Catholic Network
- Ave Maria Radio Interview with Al Kresta on Kresta in the Afternoon, July 1, 2010
- WTMR Radio Interview with Kathleen McCarthy, April 14, 2010
- EWTN Live interview with Father Mitch Pacwa, January 27, 2010 on EWTN Global Catholic Network
- WCRA Talk Radio interview with William Bence, January 22, 2010
- Regular interviews on The Son Rise Morning Show, broadcast on EWTN Radio, April 2009 to present
 - Martyrs (St. Edmund Campion; Saints Margaret Clitherow, Anne Line, and Margaret Ward, St. John Ogilvie, et al.)
 - Events (Gunpowder Plot; Execution of Anne Boleyn; Conversion of R.H. Benson, et al.)
 - Themes (English Catholicism in Stuart Era; Christmas Celebrations during the English Reformation, Holy Week in the Sarum Use before the English Reformation, et al.)

Presentations:

- Kansas City-St. Joseph, Missouri Diocese’s Bishop Helmsing Institute Apologetics Conference Presentations: “How Catholics Survived the English Reformation” and “Church History and Apologetics”, March 13, 2010
- St. Paul’s Parish/Newman Center, Wichita, Kansas: “Blessed John Henry Newman: Guide for the Laity and for Conscience”, September 22, 2010
- Serra Club (and other organizations in 2009 and 2010), Wichita Kansas: Experience of Writing and Promoting Supremacy and Survival, January 5, 2011
- Theology on Tap, Young Catholics of Wichita program, June 14, 2011
- Marketing Presentation at the Catholic Writers Guild Conference, Thursday, August 4, 2011 in Valley Forge/King of Prussia, Pennsylvania

- “Church History and Apologetics”, at the St. Paul Parish-Newman Center at Wichita State University, Wednesday, October 12, 2011
- Serra Club Presentation, “November 15 and the Catholic Martyrs of the English Reformation”, Tuesday, November 15, 2011

Presentation Examples:

- Narrative of the English Reformation (day-long or multi-part program)
- The English Reformation in Fiction
- Great Saints and Martyrs of the English Reformation (selection or overview)
- Cavalcade of English Converts in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Century (selection or overview)
- Blessed John Henry Newman: Life and Works (day-long or multi-part program)
- Blessed John Henry Newman and the Catholic Revival in England
- Experience of Writing, Publishing and Promoting a Non-Fiction Book
- Church History and Apologetics: Tools for Defending the Church
- Sixteenth Century Europe: The Protestant Reformation and the Catholic Reformation
- Anglicanorum Coetibus: Pope Benedict XVI’s “Bridge over the Tiber” for Groups of Anglicans

Education

- M.A. English Language and Composition, Wichita State University (1986)
- B.A., English Language and Literature, Wichita State University (1981)

Memberships

- Church of the Blessed Sacrament, Wichita, Kansas
- Kansas Authors Club
- Catholic Writers Guild